THE SOLDIERS' AND SAILORS' NATIONAL CONVENTION.—The delegates to this convention meet last evening, in the Hall of the House of Kepresentatives.

General Hinks, of Massachusetts, was the first speaker, and delivered as interesting address Mr. C H. Madison was added to the list of sec-eral resolutions were affered, and counider discussion was had on the question as to should be admitted as members of the con-who should be admitted as members of the convention.

The general disposition appeared to incline to the admission by courtsey of all honorably discharged soldlers and sailors to seats in the sear-vantion, and some members argued that the convention was really a grand mass meeting convention was really a grand mass meeting convented for the surpose of forming an organization. This being the case, it was argued that all honorably discharged soldlers or sailors, and those now in service, should be admitted to seats and, to prevout an inequality of representation for different States, the vote of each State be determined by its representation in Congress. The cuttre subject was referred to the Committee on Oredentials.

Gredentials.

Goo. Fisher offered a resolution expressing the sense of the convention in condemnation of the atrocities of the rebuilded of the stroid of Jefferson Davis by a military canmission; which, on his motion, was referred to the Committee on Resolutions.

A number of resolutions in relation to the equalization of boarties and employment of discharged soldiers is civil offices were offered and referred to the committee.
